Possibly died in 1920?

We think - He was the son of Mr and Mrs W.F. Parris. They lived at 66 Murillo Road.

His father W.F.Parris became a Server in April 1913 and he was the Honorary Secretary and Treasurer for the Men's Socials. Mrs Parris was involved in collecting the money for a memorial to Miss Williams which is the Sanctuary Lamp that hangs in the Chancel.

In 1923 Mr Parris was the treasurer as the church struggled to raise money to pay for repairs.

Or – He might have been –

This gentleman was Private Arthur James Parris of 1/20th (Blackheath and Woolwich) Battalion London Regiment, (3945) and Killed in Action on 16 July 1916.
