

Safeguarding Disclosure: What to do?

The 5 R's

- Recognition: the ability to take in the disclosure and recognise the seriousness
- Responding: the knowledge and confidence to know how to respond to concerns appropriately and within the relevant timescales
- Recording: this refers to the importance of prompt recording at all stages of your involvement in any safeguarding incident
- Referral: the knowledge about the process of reporting on your concerns through the correct procedures listed below
- Resolution: there may be a need to escalate your concerns again if they have not been responded to in an appropriate way either
