

Second Reading: Mt 9.35-10.8

Reader: Jocelyn Stoddard

Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and curing every disease and every sickness. When he saw the crowds, he had compassion for them, because they were harassed and helpless, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest.' Then Jesus summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to cure every disease and every sickness. These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon, also known as Peter, and his brother Andrew; James son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the tax-collector; James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Cananaean, and Judas Iscariot, the one who betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent out with the following instructions: 'Go nowhere among the Gentiles, and enter no town of the Samaritans, but go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. As you go, proclaim the good news, "The kingdom of heaven has come near." Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons. You received without payment; give without payment.

Jubilate: John Ireland in F

Anthem: Blessed be the God and Father (S.S. Wesley)

Sermon: Revd Manuela Schmucki

Hymn: 456

Intercessions: Alyson Bond

Our Diocese: Sarah Mullally, Archbishop of Canterbury, Christopher our Diocesan Bishop, Alastair Bishop of Woolwich, Manuela our Rector, for Tolworth, Hook, Surbiton and St Paul Team Ministry, Hook

The World Church: The bishops, priests, deacons & people of the Church of the Province of Southeast Asia

The World: for all the refugees in the World who fled their country in search of peace and safety for themselves and their families.

The Environment: for all organisations heavily involved in tackling the environmental crisis or campaigning to end deforestation, protect endangered species, and restore critical habitats in order to make our world a greener world.

The Community: for blessings and protection of all LGBTQ+ people, particularly during this Pride month.

The People to Pray For: Ian Thomas, Dottie Godec, Natalie Wilson, Chris Falconer, Margaret Offerman, Andrea Lambert, Samantha Senior, Wendy Thomson, Meg Dinkeldein, Joan, Jake Maynard, Marie-Christine Berg, Doreen Brooker, Sabrina; Lydia Johnson; Essie Savage and Michael Letchfield. We place their tribulations, and worries in the Lord's capable hands and ask that He restores their health again

The Departed: Adrian Falconer

Year's Mind: Fred McKay, Marian Hayter, Jackie Stokes, and Joan Wintour

Hymn: 606

Voluntary: Fugue in B minor (BWV 579) (J.S. Bach)

A Year of Bach: There is an assumption that this fugue is based on a theme of Corelli. There are similarities between this fugue and Corelli's Sonata da Chiesa a Tre, Op. 3, but it is not known if Bach had seen a copy of the concerto. The fugue has a strong concerto quality.

Bach turned concerti by Corelli and other composers into organ pieces, and we shall hear examples on 7 March and 11 April 2027.

NOTICES

- Midweek Services: We will have Morning Prayer at 9am from Monday to Wednesday this week. There will be no Midweek Eucharist on Wednesday or Morning Prayer on Thursday due to Manuela taking a wedding in another part of England.
- Year of Bach: From Trinity Sunday 2026 until Trinity 2027 there will be a piece of organ music by Bach played each week. As well as a short note in the notice sheet about the piece being played there is a leaflet in church (and online) with the list of pieces until November.
- Could St Margaret's offer a Cool Space during Heatwaves? We are currently exploring if St Margaret's might be able to offer St Margaret's Crypt as a cool space a few times per week during heatwaves this summer. This could be a meaningful way of serving our local communities but will only be possible with support from volunteers who would be willing to make people feel welcome at St Margaret's. Would you be up for being part of that? If you are interested in helping, there is a signup sheet at the back of the church.
- St Margaret's Weekend Event: anybody willing to volunteer on Saturday 18th of July, with our family friendly St Margaret's event, please get in touch with Sally Enfield or Manuela

The Collect

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen

First Reading: Ex 19.2-8a

Hymn: 369

Psalm: 116

First Reading: Ex 19.2-8a

Reader: Madeleine Dobson

They had journeyed from Rephidim, entered the wilderness of Sinai, and camped in the wilderness; Israel camped there in front of the mountain. Then Moses went up to God; the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Thus you shall say to the house of Jacob, and tell the Israelites: You have seen what I did to the Egyptians, and how I bore you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself. Now therefore, if you obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession out of all the peoples. Indeed, the whole earth is mine, but you shall be for me a priestly kingdom and a holy nation. These are the words that you shall speak to the Israelites.' So Moses came, summoned the elders of the people, and set before them all these words that the Lord had commanded him. The people all answered as one: 'Everything that the Lord has spoken we will do.' Moses reported the words of the people to the Lord.
